BUSINESS DESCRIPTION

Since 1991, this well established shipping and packaging operation has been serving one of Tulsa's premier shopping centers. Offering both FedEx and UPS shipping services along with other exclusive customer benefits, management has added a unique retail component that generates additional revenues contributing to a consistent repeat business model that enjoys limited competition in the market. Open just 48 hours per week, one person can easily manage this one of kind concept that is supported by one of the unrivaled demographic profiles in Tulsa. There are other services and products that could easily be added to this successful business model if desired. The relative ease of operation and a less demanding open to close schedule makes this an ideal family business that is fun with very few headaches.
